

Myths and Facts about the Value of a CSU Degree

Dr. Thad R. Nodine explores the challenges and misconceptions faced by low-income CSU students regarding the value of their degree, emphasizing the critical role of middle leaders in providing support.

Read Blog

Jeanine Cunningham, New Research Manager of the Network, Uses Research-Informed Strategies to Tackle Equity Challenges

Through her role, Jeanine Cunningham aims to empower educational leaders and institutions with the tools necessary for meaningful change.

Read Q & A

Separate is Not Equal: Recognizing the 70th Anniversary of Brown v. Board of Education of Topeka, Kansas, 1954

This event begins with a national overview of how we came to our current circumstances by Dr. Tressie McMillan Cottom, noted sociologist and MacArthur Foundation "Genius Grant" fellow, and continues with an examination of equity and DEI in California.

Learn More

Also of Interest

Supporting LGBTQIA2s+ Students in the CSU

Supporting LGBTQIA2S+ Students in the CSU

In a series of three Knowledge Center memos, we aim to advance the dialogue within the California State University community on improving policies and practices to more effectively acknowledge, support, and uplift LGBTQIA2S+ students.

Read Memos

 Share This Email

The CSU Student Success Network | 6000 J Street, MS 6147, Sacramento, CA 95819

Unsubscribe studentsuccessnetwork@edinsightscenter.org

Update Profile | Constant Contact Data Notice

Sent by studentsuccessnetwork@edinsightscenter.org powered by

Try email marketing for free today!